Breaches

The club requires a report about any Member, Player, Coach, Parent or Supporter who may be in breach of any code to be made directly to the executive committee and the following information must be provided:

- Details of the offence
- What section of the code has the offence breached
- Names of Witnesses
- The committee will provide in writing notice to the Member, Player, Parent or Supporter to attend a meeting to investigate, establish the facts and determine if in fact there was any breach.
- Failure to attend the meeting will result in automatic assumption of guilt and the appropriate penalty provided.
- The person will receive such penalty in writing.

Any Member, Player, Coach, Parent or Supporter who are found in breach of any of the codes will face penalties that include but not limited to the following:

1st Offence – 1 Week penalty from playing match day or attending any given match

2nd Offence – 2 Week penalty from playing match day or attending any given match/es

3rd Offence – Termination from the club (No refund of registration) as player and member/supporter

- NOTE: any transfers may be denied if found in breach.

The Executive Committee reserves the right to determine the penalty based on the severity of the breach and in severe cases this may result in instant termination from the club.

PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

I....., hereby commit, to the best of my ability, to uphold the Players code of conduct of the St Albans Football Club.

I understand that as an integral component of me playing Australian Rules Football, I must maintain a standard of behaviour and conduct in the best interests of the game, teammates, and club officials.

In representing myself in an honest manner and without bringing the game into disrepute, I will endeavour to uphold the following to the best of my ability:

1. I will respect the rights, dignity and worth of all individuals within the context of my involvement in Australian Rules Football, including refraining from any discriminatory practices based on race, religion, ethnic background, or special ability/disability.
2. I will play by the rules of the club and the Spirit and laws of the game.
3. I will never argue with an umpire or other official – without these people, you can't play football.
4. I will be always supportive, and I will refrain from any form of personal abuse or unnecessary physical contact with my teammates and the opposition players.
5. I will cooperate with my coach, umpires, and teammates.
6. I will play for enjoyment and to improve my skills.
7. I will always display appropriate sporting behaviour, ensuring the practise of fair play.
8. I will display and foster respect for umpires, opponents, coaches, administrators, other officials, parents, and spectators.

agreeing to this Code of Conduct will be mandatory at time of registration
